Team Support Big Help

In talking with Coach Charles McCurry Monday morning, he said his Tigers came through the Samson game Friday night with no serious injuries and his squad is in good spirit and determined to make the best possible showing against Geneva Friday night. He said he shares with the squad the personal belief that the Tigers have a good chance to defeat Geneva. Elba football fans should forget the poor showing of the Tigers against Samson last Friday and get behind the team 100 percent. It will be of great help to the team in their remaining four games against Geneva, Andalusia, Troy and Ashford.

HAPPY SOLUTION

Miss Barbara Smith announces that she will accept a position in the dental offices of the Rungtong Clinic. She has been serving as a trained nurse at Enterprise hospital three weeks prior to his death, Saturday night, Oct. 20, she took care of him until he died. Miss Barbara's many friends are happy to learn that she has accepted a position in Dr. Rungtong's office so she will be able to be at home at night where she can aid in caring for her mother who is an invalid.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MEETING

Sam J. Casey, superintendent of Elba public schools, attended the state meeting of school superintendents which convened at the Taxwiler Hotel in Birmingham Monday and Tuesday.

FILM SHOWN

A film, entitled "Par from Alone," sponsored by the MFF Fall Action Project, "Alcohol and Christianity," was shown on Sunday night at the Elba Methodist Church. Jimmy Holland, county soil conservationist, operated the machine.

FATHER IMPROVES

Jimmy Holland reported Sunday that his father, C. E. Holland, who suffered a heart attack a week ago and who underwent treatment in an Andalusia hospital for several days, has improved to such an extent that he was able to return to his home in Gantt last Friday. Jimmy spent quite a bit of time at his father's bedside while he was confined to the hospital.

FIGS IN LATE OCTOBER

Harvey Waters reports that he has a fig tree which is well loaded with good-sized fruit. He said the tree which was a large one, was frozen to the ground by the severe freeze two winters ago. He cut the dead limbs back last fall. Harvey said the tree sprouted out and made a good-sized tree which is now full of figs. He said he never before saw figs growing in late October in this part of the county.

NEW BRIDGE

Commissioner Flournoy Whitman stated Saturday that he is happy over the announcement that the old condemned "swinging bridge" across Pea River two miles southeast of Kinston is to be replaced by a modern concrete and steel structure.

Mr. Whitman said the old bridge was built of steel (swinging construction) and was a narrow, one-way span. The new bridge will have a 22-foot roadway and the dangerous curve at the western approach will be straightened out. It will be a farm-to-market project with Federal, state and county participation.

There are many farm homes along this road and it is an important thoroughfare.

SPURLINS RETURN

Mr. & Mrs. Willie M. Spurlin have sold their home in Ek-hart, Texas where they moved eight months ago and have moved back to Elba. Mr. Spurlin called at The Clipper office Tuesday morning and stated that he retained his home and store property located this side of Mulberry Heights and would recoupy it. Mr. Spurlin imported a variety of pears and set them out on his farm near Elba many years ago and the variety became famous for their fine quality in this section.

8 AMENDMENTS ON BALLOT—

General Election Is Tuesday

Another presidential election is close at hand. Voters of Coffee County will go to the polls Tuesday, Nov. 6 to cast their ballots for presidential electors, United States Senator, Congressman for this district, Coffee County Superintendent of Education, four county commissioners, two members of the county Board of Education, a justice of the peace in Beat 17 and a constable in Beat 6.

Eight state constitutional amendments will also be voted upon. Electors for three presidential nominees are on the ballot—Democrat, Republican and Independent. Adlai Stevenson is the Democrat nominee; Dwight D. Eisenhower the Republican nominee and Coleman Andrews the Independent nominee.

The Republicans have not offered token opposition for the state and county offices. Democrat nominees are: U. S. Senate, Walter Hill, Congressman from this district, George Andrews; Coffee County Superintendent of Education, C. E. Peacock; Commissioners—Dist. 1, Eugene Brown; Dist. 2, Claude Tindol; Dist. 3, Flournoy Whitman; Dist. 4, Buster Bowden; County Board of Education, Hilton J. Harrel and Charles Malory; Justice of the Peace, Beat 17, W. H. Watkins; Constable, Beat 6, Avery Jackson.

PIKE, COFFEE & GENEVA COUNTIES—

3-County Sing Held Sunday

A large crowd attended the Pike, Coffee and Geneva County class choir singing convention Sunday, Oct. 28 at West's Chapel. Each county was represented by a class of choir singers. The house was called to order by John C. Parham, chairman who sang one song. John Hall led the prayer. The following officers were then elected: D. W. Weeks, chairman; J. C. Walton, vice chairman, and J. C. Kelley, secretary.

Song leaders were W. R. Hamilton, C. C. Clark, R. E. Adam, D. M. Bedole, P. A. Moore, Mrs. D. C. Clark, Miss Mary Sue Weeks, Z. R. Bailey, Charlie Coppage, Mrs. Pear Patterson, J. C. Short, Miss Annie Cray, J. M. Wyatt, Miss Mary Alice.

AROUND THE FLOWING WELL

By Paul E. Cunningham

ONE OF THE MOST interesting sights I have seen in a long time was witnessed Sunday as my wife and I were driving out the Opp road towards the airport. Down the road about 100 feet from where the carnival is setting up and on the opposite side of the highway was a white house. I don't know who is living there now but a year or so ago it was badly damaged by a fire. Anyway a brown and black dog was serenely surveying the passing traffic from the top of a car in the yard. What made the picture really worth while was the kitten curled up asleep, with his head on the dog's tummy. I tried to get a picture of it but the dog became afraid when I approached with my camera in hand and jumped off the roof of the car. That picture would have been worth a lot.

THIS WEEK THE PHOTO of the kindergarten class as they appeared in the Homecoming Parade took the cooperation of three Elba folks to get in the paper. Bonneau Rowe snapped the shutter and Dr. J. M. Kinney did the enlarging. Helen Rainer fired the picture off to Enterprise to get the engraving back in time for this week's edition.

SUNSET BOULEVARD was a busy place Monday morning about 9 o'clock. There were 12 men or more working for the first day on putting in the sewer line, the garbage collection truck was going its rounds and Roy King was picking up dry cleaning. Only man I missed seeing was the milk man and I'll bet he wasn't far off.

1957 Chevrolet to Be Given Away—

This Is "Entry Week" for Big Contest

BY HOYCE & ERA CROW
Contest Managers

Coffee County buzzed with excitement the past week as the greatest prize giving event of all was announced in the pages of this newspaper. Hundreds of people are looking forward to seeing the first prize 1957 Chevrolet which will be on display at the Dorsey Brothers Chevrolet Co showrooms about Nov. 7.

A number of contestants came in and entered the contest. More will be interviewed this week and next and entered in the great "Everybody Wins" contest. Many more contestants are still needed to properly cover the territory in the short time allotted for the competition. In addition to this Chevrolet contest based on effort alone and worth $2,280, there is a second grand award of $750 in cash and other prizes towards "place winners." In addition to this, every participant will receive weekly commission checks for 20 percent (or $100 out of every $500 collected) on his subscription sale.

Elba, defending the east goal, was unable to make any headway against the strong Samson line and was forced to punt on the Elba 32, the ball being downed on the Samson 31. From that point Samson made five first downs, marching 68 yards for a touchdown. The longest gain of the drive was only 13 yards. The extra point plunge was good.

What Is A Club of Subs in The "Everybody Wins" Contest? A "club" of subscriptions in The Elba Clipper's "Everybody Wins" prize contest is any group of subscriptions totaling $20.00. For example, ten yearly subscriptions at the regular rate of $2.00 would constitute a $20 "club," on which 50,000 EXTRA votes are given toward winning the big prizes in addition to the regular schedule of votes on each individual subscription. Another example, 15-year, 2 3-year and one 1-year subscriptions amount to an even $20 and count 50,000 EXTRA votes, in addition to the regular schedule of votes.

Those who make it their aim to obtain "one club a day" will undoubtedly be among the winners of the biggest and best prizes.

Vote "Yes" on Amendment No. 1

Even the most ardent backers of the reapportionment amendment No. 1 admit the bill leaves a lot to be desired. It is not what the Poison administration started after but it was the best compromise they could arrange with Blackbelts and other legislators. With that in mind we are going to cast a "yes" vote for Amendment No. 1. Maybe with a newly realigned legislature, true reapportionment can be instituted.

Amendment No. 2 Deserves Support

In the General Elections Nov. 6, the voters of the state will also be faced with a slate of eight amendments. The first one is reapportionment and the second would authorize the issuance by the state of four million dollars in bonds to finance capital additions and improvements at Bryce Hospital, Seale Hospital and Partlow State School.

Reports from competent people state that these institutions are well operated by people doing a remarkable job. But that the institutions are crowded beyond the conception of people who have not visited them. "It surprises me that the staffs are able to do as much work as they have done under congested conditions," writes Buford Boone, editor of The Tuscaloosa News.

Approval of Alabama voters for the financing of needed improvements is desirable. Alabama then would have the satisfaction of having provided reasonable facilities to treat and restore to society our fellow citizens.

History for the past 50 years has proven that the state law making body, as it is now set up, will never do anything about reapportioning itself so that voters in populous areas will have a fair voice in the state government. We believe any change would be for the better.

Under Amendment No. 1, Coffee County would have one full time representative and one full time senator.

low Alabamians who fall victim to various mental illnesses. We cannot afford to do less any longer.

Approval of Amendment No. 2 will not mean the levying of additional taxes since these bonds are to be retired out of the general fund. The maximum interest that can be paid on them is three percent. The amendment has been drawn by its authors so as to make it impossible for the bond money to be spent for anything other than the purposes specified.

"You and I know that there are no lobbies for the mentally ill. They are the dead who are still living. They cannot vote. They have no political influence. Many are forgotten by their own blood kin. But we must take adequate care of them and we cannot do this job without proper facilities which will permit the prompt acceptance of new patients as they become problems in your community and other communities," Mr. Boone concludes.

NEW HOME convenience

in your
OLD HOME

with modern
Electrical Appliances

Today many old homes are being converted into modern new homes simply by renewing the wiring, installing the new electric kitchen and laundry appliances, such as dishwasher, electric water heater, range and clothes dryer in renovated kitchens or waste space converted into laundry room.

Thus the convenience and efficiency of a new home and the comfort of the roominess of the older home can be enjoyed for modest monthly payments. The important thing in an old home or a new one is enough housepower—that is, wires of the right size to make it possible for you to operate present or future appliances economically and efficiently.

Contractors will gladly tell you how much it will cost to bring the wiring in your home up-to-date. You can either install the appliances you need at one time, or buy them one-by-one. You can pay for the wiring (if needed) and the appliances monthly as you pay your electric service bill.

You and some other men are seated in the comfortable quarters of the genial old man, Martin Nolan, the retired warden of the state penitentiary. He is relating to you with some interesting stories of events that took place during his more than 30 years of penal work. He is now telling you of the attempted prison break which hit the headlines earlier in this year of 1956.

"You'll remember, that was back in February," Nolan says as he looks at you. "I told you I felt something of the sort was in the air, but I just couldn't put my finger on it. Well, as you know, this break was being engineered by one of our lifers, and a real smart fellow, too—Tom Hughes. He had been working for sometime in our machine shop, and had noted that on the first and fifteenth of every month, without fail, the prison gates were opened at exactly 8:35 in the morning to admit a switch engine to enter in on the siding that runs by the machine shop. Two guards stood in the open gates until the engine came out again with its load."

"Well, Tom Hughes laid his plans carefully, and selected three other cons to go with him on the break. He fashioned some crude knives out of scrap metal in the machine shop, and on the 22nd of February he passed these out to his pals, and told them that exactly one week from that day they were going to make their break. They went carefully over their plans, each man being detailed to 'take care of a certain guard, and every action was to coincide to get them to the rail siding just as the engine pulled in."

"On the day picked for the break, at exactly 8:30 A. M., the two machine shop guards were knifed, and the break was on! The four men raced through the steps and around the corner of the shop to the siding where the engine would be coming in. And then came the big shock of their lives. No engine! With no plans for this contingency, they panicked—and it was no trouble for the guards to retake them inside in about 10 minutes."

"It was a good plan," the old warden continues, "but Tom Hughes made one big mistake, and I wonder if any of you know just what that was."

You catch the warden's eye and grin at him as you tell him—what?

SOLUTION — Tom Hughes forgot that this year of 1956 was leap year, with 29 days in February. He planned his break for a week from February 22nd, thinking that would be March 1, when the switch engine would be entering the prison. But the day he picked was the 29th!

"BETTER LATE THAN NEVER"
If you have a persistent recurring ailment, even though it does not seem serious enough to require medical attention, do not delay consulting your physician. Nature may be warning you of some future trouble.

A cut that does not heal may indicate a possible diabetic. A persistent cough may be an allergy. Continued tiredness may be a vitamin deficiency. Let your physician diagnose the cause. Then he can prescribe the one particular medicine that will help you most.
